

Assertive “No” Messages Scenarios

You have been offered a cigarette by your friends.

You are asked by friends to leave the school property at lunch time and you do not have permission to do so.

Your friends ask if they can copy your homework.

Your friends dare you to take a chocolate bar from the convenience store without paying.

Some friends plan to stay out late tonight past their curfew and want you to join them.